

The Ronald Reagan Presidential Library Luncheon program includes two options for large groups to have an upscale lunch under the wings of Air Force One and an exceptional tour experience. We offer our traditional Air Force One White House Luncheon and our Air Force One Barbeque Buffet. These programs include a docent-led tour of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and our amazing Air Force One Pavilion, and a self-guided tour our spectacular special exhibits, followed by a unique and delightful lunch.

The Air Force One White House Luncheons are $66.95 per person, for groups of 40 people or more. This lunch comes complete with linen and china service, fresh flowers on the tables, and professional wait staff to attend to your group. The Air Force One Barbeque Buffet is $56.95 per person, for groups of 30 people or more. This buffet includes catering staff to oversee and restock your lunch, complete with linen and china service, and a truly exceptional buffet experience.

Both lunches are offered daily. Additional fees will apply for lunches that occur on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. For questions, or to reserve your space today, please call the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation at 805-577-4057. Space and dates are limited for these lunches, so please call early. Final guest count is due seven days prior to event. Rates and prices are subject to change.

Emmy and Golden Globe-winning Actor Gary Sinise hosts this informative video tour of The Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum. Join Gary as he personally takes you through the Reagan Library, with stops in the Oval Office, aboard Air Force One and at the Berlin Wall. Historical clips of President Reagan provide context and inspiration throughout.
